Chairman's Message

As the felicitations of Christmas slowly subside I take this opportunity of wishing Tattersall's Club members, Committee and staff all the best for a prosperous and healthy New Year.

Palatial buildings do not always betoken a happy and friendly club, but in Tattersall's, in the decade now concluded, we have every reason to be proud of our attainments.

Within our walls immeasurable improvements have taken place, and the hallowed traditions of Tattersall's Club preserved.

Our Club was created by sporting men of the last century, and operates under the Tattersall's Club Act of 1888.

We pride ourselves that the aspirations of our founders, through successive generations, have been faithfully carried out.

Entering on another decade it is obvious that the 70s will be the turning point in our nation's history. Whether it be oil or mineral, wool or wheat, whatever the commodity, Australia will emerge from the ensuing decade a power to behold.

As we march with progress so will Tattersall's.

Let us make a New Year resolution — if your attendance in the Club has been occasional or spasmodic in the past let us now make it regular and sustained.

This will make a resurgence by rejoining our colleagues, joining the ranks of newer members, and ensuring the continuance of the tradition that has made our heritage — Tattersall's Club.

F. J. Carberry

KINDRED CLUBS LUNCHEON

As a gesture of goodwill to kindred clubs Tattersall's Club conducted its usual Christmas function whereat the representatives formed a "Who's Who" of Sydney's prominent sporting personages.

Clubs represented were: Australian Jockey Club, Sydney Turf Club, City Tattersall's Club, Newcastle Jockey Club, Newcastle Tattersall's Club, Hawkesbury Race Club, NSW Trotting Club, Kembla Grange Race Club, Royal NSW Bowling Association, Sydney Cricket Ground, NSW Cricket Association, Totalisator Agency Board, NSW Amateur Swimming Association, Union of Old Swimmers, Rugby Union, NSW Rugby Football League, NSW Leagues Club, NSW Lawn Tennis Association, NSW Golf Association and the Registered Clubs Association.

Notable guests included the Chief Justice, the Hon. Sir Leslie Herron, Hon. E. A. Willis representing the Premier Mr. Askin, Lord Mayor of Sydney Ald. Emmet McDermott, and Bert Sakzewski, former chairman of Brisbane Tattersall's Club and now chairman of the Qld. T.A.B.

Tattersall's Committee members and Club life members were also present.

Chairman Frank Carberry, in a bright speech, extended a welcome and conveyed festive greetings, wittily responded to by Sir Leslie Herron, the Hon. E. A. Willis and the Lord Mayor.

NOVOCASTRIAN

In between dining and dancing, Stan Steggles told us that he bowled with Newcastle Jockey Club's bowling club, was 12 years a committeeman, and is now a life member of Newcastle Tattersall's Club.

Way back in 1916-17 Stan won the gold medal for the best player in Central Newcastle Rugby League team, playing as a second row forward. He is currently a member of the C.T.A., S.T.C. and the S.C.G.

LITTLE BY LITTLE

Baby son to C. R. Little, and with grandfathers A. F. Little and A. N. Keeler both Club members following family tradition, another Little member of the future appears a certainty.

CRICKET MEMORIES

Ken Brown is a life member of the NSW Veterans' Cricket Club. He has vivid memories of his days with St. George and Glebe, and rates Ray Lindwall as his pick of the stars.

Ken now looks after his shrubs and lawns at Turramurra, and plays his golf at Pymble.

NO FUR FLEW

Jack Levy, assisted by Max Cornelius, Roy Michael, Kev Chaldjian and Peter Kiel, organised a function in the Sportsman's Room for the Fur Trade Association.

President of the Victorian body, Ron Grimes, was a guest, and the occasion was also taken to announce the engagement of Evelyn Cornelius to Malcolm Turnbull.

ALL ROUNDER

Deploying heavy equipment on the waterfront, Alan Sawyer occasionally has time to have a game of billiards in the Club. Born at Wagga, Alan is an old Cranbrookian, which college he represented at football, cricket, athletics, and tennis. He golfs at Royal Sydney, skis at Perisher Valley, and flies with the Royal Aero Club.

BACK TO BACK

Five years ago Ray Davis, in company with Jack O'Neill and Ted Wales, was in Brisbane for the Stradbroke Handicap.

Ray had an unfortunate accident which affected his back and he had to return to Sydney. He was hospitalised in St. Vincent's for 3½ months. As a gesture of goodwill Ray since worked in an honorary capacity for that hospital, and through his voluntary efforts was successful in finance raising schemes.

But Ray has had a recurrence of his back injury, and had to be re-admitted to the hospital he has so assiduously helped.

We wish Ray a permanent recovery and look forward to his return to the gin rummy school at the Club, and that is echoed by his card-playing pals, Tony Murphy, Jimmy Woods, George Sheidow and Jim Morgan.

EVERGREEN

There are many instances of family groups and relatives enjoying our facilities, but as we talked to Sol Green we formed the idea that the Green family would take some beating.

Sol has three sons, all members — Maurice, Leslie and Alan. Sol has two brothers, Simon and Israel, both members, and his grandson Tony is a third generation member.

Sol's son-in-law, Dr. Bob Diamond, is also a member as was his late father, Dick Diamond. Then Sol has approximately eight nephews also members.

Sol is a daily visitor to the Club, frequents the pool and sauna bath, and plays bowls with Tattersall's and at Double Bay. He occasionally casts a line outside the Heads.

Altogether this makes us proud of the Green association with Tattersall's Club.

OH! MR. SHEAHAN

Enterprising Bill Sheahan hosted a family party to celebrate son Terry's admission to membership of the Club.

Like his father, Terry is entering on a legal career. We remember, almost too long ago, the formidable duo of Peter Gallagher and Bill Sheahan — and the song of that time "Oh, Mr. Gallagher, Oh, Mr. Sheahan."

Perhaps Terry will link up along the same lines.

We asked Bill to recount some anecdotes of his political life. Bill held several Ministerial portfolios, including Attorney General, Lands, Transport and Health. Bill said that one story concocted of him whilst Minister for Transport, is still green in his memory.

Always a stickler for every man to do an honest job, he was faced with public complaints that the relationship between the transport employees and the community could be much improved.

Billy is said to have made unexpected visits to the bus depots at all hours of the night to see that the staff kept on their toes. On one occasion about two in the morning, he visited a depot and met a disgruntled man who wanted to go from Mosman to Palm Beach, and was told that he would have to wait for the first bus in the morning.

It is facetiously said that Billy upbraided the staff at the bus depot, and demanded that a bus be brought out especially for the traveller.

Out came an equally upset driver with a single decker bus. And as the story goes, Billy roared out "Take that bus back and bring out a double decker. The gentleman might care to smoke!"

SPARE AIR

Though Club members are chortling, Rose and Wal Hutchinson have not yet realised the humour of the situation. It appears that when motoring back from the Melbourne Cup they decided to do some country sight-seeing. They were not conservative in their exploring and returned via Mildura, Broken Hill, Wilcannia, and when 58 miles from Cobar suffered a puncture.

Not being the best mechanic in the world Wally waited for the eventual Good Samaritan to stop and help him put on the spare. Operation completed — yes, you have guessed it — the spare had no air!!

GREAT WIN FOR OUR CLUB

Members generally owe gratitude to their representatives in the inter-club snooker contests which gained for Tattersall's Club a further win for 1969.

The opposition included Sports, Imperial Services, R.A.C.A., Schools and Sydney Clubs.

Each second Thursday our team included Peter McGrath as non-playing captain, Rowan Hunt, John Peoples, Lee Bluett, Jim Wilson, Eugene Piekarski, Bert Tonks, Ben Gerakiteys, Warren Foster, and Bob Concannon as scorer.

The last of the matches presented a critical result, for if Tattersall's had been beaten a three-way tie would have been created. However, we had a 3-nil victory, and honours for another year were won.

Sincere congratulations to all concerned.

KIA ORA

During the Newcastle Turf Bowling Week held recently we learned that the final of the KO bowls competition was played in the dark. Wal Hutchinson vividly explained his difficulties in the last murky minutes. It was left to Jack Peters and his gallant team to emerge victorious.

Jack's prize was a silver tray, which will go to his son, Brian, well known pharmacist, who recently announced his engagement to a Kiwi lass, Jenny Brown. Kia Ora, Jenny and Brian.

WELCOME BACK

Bill Band and Eric Davis recently attended a business conference in Rome. Having thrown their three coins into the fountain they then returned via New York and Hollywood.

CANADIOL

Fred Gawler recalls that on an occasion when he was staying in a Brisbane hotel with Sam Peters they spent a day at the Booroodabin Bowling Club. At the conclusion of the game Sam rang a taxi company for a cab, and was asked: "Where did you say? How do you spell it?"

Sam replied: "You don't spell it — you cough it."

PGF DOES IT AGAIN

Clare Higson, managing director of PGF, said recently that his firm has just won a second export award from the Federal Government for outstanding sales performance.

PGF has contributed significantly to Australia's export earnings in the past five years, and we congratulate you, Clare, as we know you had a big hand in this result.

Clare travels overseas frequently promoting Australian golf clubs, and says that there is a growing world-wide acceptance of tailored-to-measure clubs for better performance by golfers of all ages.

LIONEL FOR CANBERRA

Popular Club figure Lionel Bowen, who was MLA for Randwick since 1962, was recently elected MHR and will do his future legislating at Canberra. Lionel was a former Randwick municipal councillor, was twice Mayor, and also a former deputy chairman of the Sydney County Council.

Our congratulations, Lionel.

OUR U.S. COUSINS

David Landa recently returned from six weeks tour of the United States where he delivered a paper to the American Society of Agricultural Consultants at its annual meeting in New Orleans.

David spoke in glowing terms of the hospitality accorded him at our affiliated clubs in New York, Chicago, and San Francisco, and conveyed his thanks for our letters of introduction.

HIGH SPOTS

Glad to see Tom Kennedy enjoying a quiet moment in the Club. Having disposed of his large horse training establishment, Tom is now acquiring a smaller string, and his acknowledged training ability will soon again have him to the fore. Born in Cowra, Tom became foreman in 1941 to Pat Nailon.

Of all his successes Tom has fondest memories for G. A. Warby's High Spots, with whom he won 22 races.

MIMOSA MEMORIES

On Melbourne Cup day at Flemington, Bill Hannan and John Armstrong watched Tango Miss win the Mimosa Stakes.

They recalled that John's father and Denis O'Sullivan, uncle of Leo, had, as joint owners, won the Mimosa in bygone days with Heatherbrae.

PROUD DAD

Though not the boastful type, Bray Mendelsohn has reason to be proud of the attainments of his three sons.

Colin (17) has just completed his last year at Scots college with fourth place. He gained firsts in French, English Essay and general proficiency. He was also a prefect, a cadet under officer, and has his colours and blues for athletics. About to commence first year Medicine.

Older brother Kevin (21) is in 5th year Medicine, while younger brother Martyn (11) is at Opportunity School at Berala and was second of 136 students.

DINING, WINING AND DANCING

A happy group including Dr. and Mrs. Apted, Dr. and Mrs. Neale, Squadron Leader Bertie and Mrs. Higham, were entertained by Roy Purves and his wife. It was the occasion of the birthdays of Roy and Mrs. Higham.

The Jim Kearns family celebrated the engagement of daughter Maureen to Chris Niall. Maureen recently obtained her BA and has completed her exams for Dip.Ed.

Peter and Marcia Hablethwaite had an enjoyable time on the occasion of their daughter Sandra's twelfth birthday. Naturally sister Penny and brothers Luke and Matthew joined in the merriment.

John Heydon and John Hickey had another of the several reunions which they hold during the year embracing the Hickey, Brown and Heydon families. They are the hoteliers from the Tatler, Court House and Surrey hotels.

A round dozen of family, relatives and friends to celebrate Eric Lane reaching his half century.

C. W. Blake, his wife Marjorie, daughter Belinda, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Alquist, Robin McKay and his daughter Jan, had a party. Jan's birthday coincided with Melbourne Cup day. Having enjoyed the dining and dancing, and being a Thursday, they all moved to the Club bar where one of the topics was Rabaul, New Britain, where all have attachments.

Double celebration for the Dr. J. H. Seymours who entertained their in-laws, the T. S. Woodbridges, from Gundagai—Christmas and 21st birthday of daughter Frances.

Joan and Keith Longworth giving their sons Ian and Ross a party to mark the end of Cranbrook's school term.

Charles Coppa celebrated the birthday of his wife Jess in company with their four children, Christine, Bruce, Suzanne and Annette, and on the eve of Charles' departure for the Himalayas.

Nice party for Frank and Beryl Wilson on the occasion of their 30th wedding anniversary.

Dual purpose of W. G. Dickey was to welcome home the Scotts from overseas, and celebrate son David passing his final examination in Architecture.

Cedric and Billie Emanuel and Cecil and Beryl Whitmont farewelled prominent Sydney artist Ronald Stewart and his wife Dorothy en route to Spain and other parts to paint and write.

Our congratulations to senior member Alf Bloomfield, on the celebration of his golden wedding anniversary.

R. S. Bracken entertaining daughter Catherine on her 13th birthday. She and her friends thought it "terrific".

Arthur Greenhaigh with Christmas party of a dozen guests makes us feel that R.A.S. show must be in the offing.

GOLF NOTES

With the 1969 season behind us and our new champion, Ross Phillips, hanging on rather tenaciously to his newly acquired crown, I wish to thank all those Golf Club members and their visitors who turned out on our days making them so successful.

My thanks also to our Treasurer, Vic Vadas, and to a good team on the Committee.

To our Club members and honorary auditors, Harry Rowell and Alec Wannan, from the office of Fell and Starkey, our thanks for a job well done.

During the year our golfing notes took on a new look, and no wonder, when Phil Tresidder took the penmanship. We are indeed grateful, Phil.

Members may be interested to know that Alan Black, apart from being a Vice-President of the Lakes Golf Club, has this year been elected as Vice-President of the N.S.W. Golf Association.

On behalf of the Golf Club Committee, I extend to the members and staff of Tattersall's Club and their families best wishes for good health and prosperity throughout the coming year.

Geoff Eastment,
President.

A CARRINGTON WILL TO WIN

If sheer perseverance and patience ever contributed to success in an important race this was the case in Wentwel's victory in Tattersall's Club's Carrington Stakes at Randwick on January 1, 1970.

Wentwel has won 10 races, but he had to travel far afield for these successes—in Victoria, Queensland and N.S.W.

He gained provincial wins in Victoria, also a five furlongs dash up the Flemington straight; another a long way out of town at Bundamba in Brisbane. He won the Chisholm at the A.J.C. Summer carnival at Randwick last year, and again this season, and he fought tenaciously in lowly Canterbury welters.

But his improvement in form was never better demonstrated than his Carrington Stakes performances. In the 1969 contest he was favourite, but only fourth behind champion performers, Gay Gauntlet and Betelgeuse.

His owner, Mrs. P. Williams, and trainer George Musson of Rosehill, battled on determinedly in the belief that at a mature six years he would develop the top form they expected this season, and they were right.

Despite his victory in this year's Chisholm a week before this year's Carrington he wasn't favourite. That betting priority went to the unlucky but somewhat unreliable Regal Rhythm who with 9.9 had to concede Wentwel a stone and a half in weight. This he couldn't manage against Wentwel's brilliant speed. Wentwel led all the way, ran the six furlongs in a swift 1 10.1 and beat the T. J. Smith champion by three lengths.

Proving how difficult it is to concede such mounting poundage at that kind of speed.

Wentwel's six furlongs time 1 10.1 proved how, with maturity, he had developed above-average form. It was not a Carrington record, though. This is held by the 1959 Carrington winner, Front Cover, who ran 1 9.1. But Wentwel's 1 10.1 is not bad for a battling race-horse of his type.

STABLE SWAP FOR OUR CUP FAVORITE

Underdevelopments were associated with Tattersall's Cup at January 1, but nothing detracted from the merit of Regal Jane who completed the two mile when she gained a margin by 1½ lengths.

As she prevailed by three-quarters of a length in the Summer Cup, but her form improved her new-found condition to such an extent she doubled the margin of success over the Club's leading staying event.

Cyre 6/4 favourite for Tattersall's was involved in a sudden change of stables a few days before the race. It was taken from the charge of Tattersall's member, Mr. Tom Hill, and placed in the hands of Noel Best, a former trainer, who has now become a money trainer to take over the horses of W. G. Stanley, Queensland trainer, and his wife.

Mr. Best developed Cyron, a former second New Zealand performer, to become Australia's top handicapper. Among his good wins were the Adams Stakes, the Australian Cup (dead-heat with Ya) at Flemington. His eight wins in the Hill stable netted $6,800. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley.

The change of stables brought Cyron to Tattersall's Cup.

Cyron with 9/10, made a valiant attempt to overtake Regal Jane in the race but the unaccustomed mile and he found him lacking in stamina and he found an impost, and he missed a place.

Regal Jane's triumph over Cyron gave her a measure of measure of personification.

He, being a discard from the G. Stanley horses.

On Friday he won the Caulfield Cup on the Stanley's horse, Sahib, also trained by Tom Hill. It was told that he would be no longer required for his horses, and a later Geo. Moore won Australia's best weight-for-age event, the $4,000 Plate, at Moonee Valley on the colt.

It may have afforded marked gratification to the trainer that in Tattersall's Cup Regal Jane was a mare quickly capable of wearing the Stanley colours worn by Cyron.

Another source of pleasure for Camer was to move to France for a season's training for another Australian, the Fils, who controls a powerful Melbourne stable.

It must be the Camer ego to realise how much higher his services are evaluated.

Winning the Summer Cup-Tattersall's Cup is no easy task and few horses have achieved success in the two events.

In 1962-3 the Queensland horse Alspick did the trick, and 12 months later General Delivery brought off the dual win. A year ago Sandy's Hope was able to land the two Cups under excessive weights, 8.13 and 9.6.

This year Regal Jane was raised from 7.6 for her Summer Cup success to 7.12 for Tattersall's Cup. Connections thought the rise harsh, but handicapper Ken Goodwin's judgment proved right when the mare had an easier Tattersall's Cup win than she had in the Summer Cup.

The writer remembers one of the earliest winners of the Summer Cup-Tattersall's Cup double which led ultimately to a Melbourne Cup triumph with 10 stone.

This was Poitrel who won the 1920 Melbourne Cup with that enormous burden.

He was a maiden three-year-old when being prepared for the Randwick Xmas carnival of 1918 but he landed a treble.

This started with success in open company in the Holiday Handicap 1½ miles on the first day. On the second day he was beaten into a close second place by an English horse, Chantemerle, after being grievously interfered with by that horse and the Stewards did not hesitate to uphold a protest, and gave him the Cup.

Next time out he easily won Tattersall's Cup and decisively beat Chantemerle into third place, proving the wisdom of the Stewards' decision.

Poitrel became the outstanding stayer of the next two racing seasons. In those days there were 2½ mile and 3 mile weight-for-age events, and he won them all.

Poitrel was slightly under sized but all heart and endurance, as his Melbourne Cup victory of 1920 proved. He was bred and raced by Messrs. W. and F. H. Moses, antecedents of the family which has had modern successes with those crack sprint brothers, Fine and Dandy and Time and Tide.

Poitrel had a brother, who it was thought might follow in his illustrious footsteps. His name was Poilu. He couldn't stay six furlongs!

Regal Jane, the 1970 winner of Tattersall's Cup was beaten in recent graduation type races, and only emerged from them with a mile and a half win at Rosehill on December 13. Her improvement from then on under trainer Vic Thompson was right out of the ordinary and has inspired him to spell her right away with a return to racing in time for the $24,000 Brisbane Cup two miles next June.

TRIUMPH FOR ELDERLY PAIR

The outstanding merit performance of Tattersall's Club's annual meeting at Randwick on January 1, 1970 was shared — by an elderly jockey and an elderly racehorse, Jack Thompson aged 47 and Scheme aged seven.

The combination won the Club Welter mile. Their prospects looked anything but bright for a horse handicapped at 9.10 when a thunderstorm brought a deluge of rain just as the race was ready to begin.

But Scheme, 7/2 second favourite, usually a front-runner, came from behind to hold off 14/1 chance Later On and get the judge's photo by a neck.

The performance emphasised versatility on the part of the horse and a clever use of tactics on the part of Jockey Jack Thompson.

He had won over an accustomed distance, 1¼ miles, at Randwick on Boxing Day by stealing swiftly to an invincible lead against an odds-on favourite, Great Exploits.

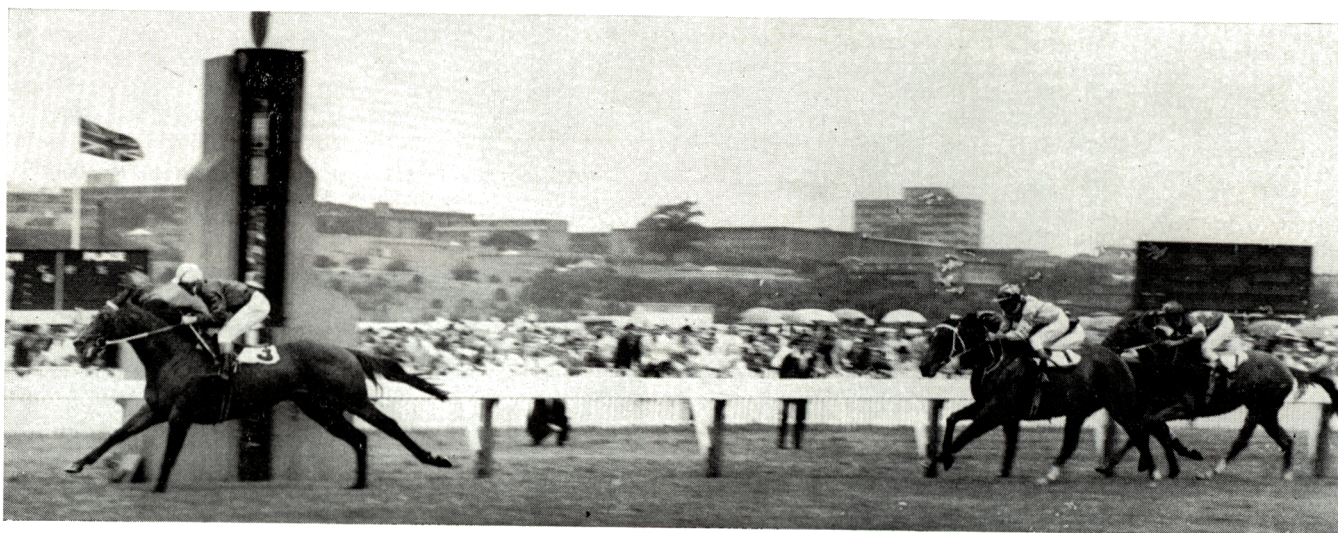

Next start, in January 1 Club Welter, Thompson let Oromedes and Oolite do the bullocking in the lead, and then Later On came with a fast finish.

"Thomo" urged Scheme for a final effort and the old horse gamely responded. The win completed a double for Thompson. He had been successful earlier in the day in the Club 2-year-old on 33/1 chance Sunday Night.

Jack Thompson is one of those wise old birds who, thanks to an above-average share of grey-matter in the belfry, can still prevail by cunning tactics. He is as fit at a fiddle and although skinny and long, is as strong as whipcord.

In these attributes he takes after Bobby Lewis, Victorian crack jockey (four Melbourne Cups) who, at 54, was still a prolific winner, and Scobie Breasley who at 54 won his third English Jockey Premiership in 1963.

SWIMMING NOTES

POOL SPLASHES

There's rarely been a more popular victory in the Swimming Club than that of Sid Kay in the November-December point score.

CHRISTMAS SCRAMBLE BEST EVER

Sid has been a runner-up and placed third in the Native Son trophy on several occasions, but the monthly point score had been very elusive. When they lined up for the last race of the month Sid swam strongly, ensuring victory as Ken Glass could have beaten him to the trophy. In doing so Sid broke his time by more than a second, which brought the acclamation of the members in the usual manner. Congratulations to a real trier, and a first class sportsman.

Committee member Arthur McCamley is to be congratulated on the performances of his filly Bronze Melody, who is held on lease by trainer Vic Thompson. The filly has won four of its last five starts, and we hope it wins many more for you, Arthur.

Yours truly would like to convey his thanks to Arthur for completing the swimming notes whilst I was on vacation in Canberra.

Our club champion and Olympic gold medallist, John Devitt, has been appointed manager of the European division of Speedo Knitting Mills. He will direct promotional activities to increase their share of the European export market. The Swimming Club will be holding a send-off party early in the New Year. John will be away for at least three years, and the good wishes of all the swimming and sporting fraternity go with him.

Quite a few swimmers have had their handicaps reduced over the last month; those catching the handicapper's eye were Stan Heaton, Sid Kay, John Bailey, Willie Rowe, Les Foley, Brian Mortensen and Wal Tyler.

Glad to welcome new members in Michael McCormack, Trevor Holman, Rod Fisher, Michael Alexander and David Playfair. Both Michael A. and David are sons of members who have always been interested in pool activities. David is also the proud father of Judy Playfair, one of our top girl swimmers.

Nice to have Gordon McGrath, John Sprouster, Max Dutch, John McClean, Bob Cleaver and John Reid joining in the swim once again.

Sad news of the month was the passing of popular Frank Muller, who was an active competitor for many years. Our sincere sympathy is extended to his family.

Best winning times of the season so far are: J. Devitt 18.9 and 19.1, B. Mortensen 20.0 and 20.2, M. Alexander 20.2 and 20.6, M. McCormack 20.1 and 20.8, W. Henneberry 20.1 and 20.6, T. Holman 20.5, N. Rogers 20.5, 20.8 and 20.9, D. Cohen 20.6 and P. King 20.7 and 20.8.

The Christmas Scramble went off with a bigger bang than ever. Four teams of 18 each contested the scramble, which was won by Brian Mortensen's team from Norm Rogers' boys, with John Devitt's lads in third place.

During the event the tension was terrific. A cheer squad for each swimmer, plus the energy of Jack Shaffran as "pusher-off", added to the general entertainment of the members and onlookers.

Winner of the consolation prize which was over six times across the pool was won by newcomer Graham Herring from Neville Amy with Paul Blake third, followed by Phillip King.

Anyway, when it was all over everybody received a prize of Christmas cheer and last man's booth was as good as that of the winner, owing to the generosity of a multitude of Club members who responded to the appeal of yours truly in wonderful fashion.

The array of prizes was tastefully arranged by the Swimming Club Committee, and made everybody's mouth water.

Our good friend Fred Daly, MHR, had his usual few words to say, congratulating the Swimming Club officials on the amount of hard and successful work they put in to keep the Club going in such an efficient manner.

He also wished the compliments of the season to all present, and our Swimming Club Committeeman Arthur McCamley suitably responded.

Thanks of the Swimming Club go to the following gentlemen whose donations of Christmas cheer made the show the "wow" it was: Messrs. Morrie Anderson, Ossie Austin, Charlie Baker, Vin Barrett, Lenny Burke, Frank Darcy, Barney Fay, Alec Gibson, Bill Hannan, Tommy Hill, Peter Holohan, John Kemeny, Bill Kirwan, Bill Loughnan, Ted Martin, Joe Matthews, Jack Muir, Jack McNally, Neville O'Neill, Leo O'Sullivan, Jack O'Neill, Bruce Partridge, Bill Sellen, Bill Sinclair, Jack Shaw, Arthur Sing, Eric Thomson, Morrie Watson, Gerry Wells, A. Weston, Ken Williams, Mick Wilson, Les Tidmarsh, Sid Blake, Bill Band, Roy Humphery, W. B. Carpenter, N. D. Jones and Leo Keating.

BOWLING NOTES

By FRED EMPSON

After an absence of two years I have been asked to take over the bowling notes. I have really enjoyed the spell and hope to give Tattersall's bowlers and members some bright news in the New Year.

It was like old times to be back at Double Bay on 27th November to renew our game. This was an old-time revival which in the past was our Thanksgiving Day to Double Bay. With a near record number of 44 players we ran out winners by 302 shots to 234. Trophy winners for the day were Ted Forrest, C. Kearns (visitor) and Mick Greenberg.

As City Club was unavailable on 4th December we were invited back to Double Bay. The sincerity of our welcome on the previous Thursday saw a big attendance again. Trophy winners were Jack Phillips, P. Goldman and Tim Anderson.

Double Bay president, Bill Hetherington, who plays regularly with us, is the sixth Tattersall's Club member to be president of that Club.

Other results from as far back as October are: 23rd October, at Kensington, Ray Mawson (visitor), G. Gleeson (visitor), and Mark Barnett; 20th November, at Bellevue Hill, T. Renensson, H. Davis, C. Kearns (visitor) and Mick Greenberg.

A number of games were washed out in October and November, and the Harry Davis Trophy will be decided after four more games. One of the conditions of this Trophy is that members have to play in at least nine of the twelve games to be eligible to win. Some of the leaders will have to play in all the four games remaining.

On the results so far the winner of the Trophy should come from Tim Anderson, B. Saw, Peter McGrath, Mark Barnett, Gordon Booth and R. Darch.

Congratulations to Sir James Kirby in being elected patron of Double Bay Bowling Club. At the Christmas Day of City Tattersall's Club bowling section at Pennant Hills we were represented by our president, Fuz Porter, Peter McGrath and Mark Barnett.

Dr. Fuz Porter extends the compliments of the season a little belatedly, as it missed the December issue of the journal. He assures the bowling section of a bigger and better year in 1970.

Although numbers were down for the Bowling Club's annual ball all present had a very enjoyable night. President Fuz Porter and Mrs. Porter welcomed each party with cocktails in the Club Room, then to the Dining Room for dinner and dancing. This was followed by a gift to the ladies and a floor show. Once again this was voted another memorable night in the history of the Bowling Club.

The year ended once again at Rose Bay, when over sixty members and visiting presidents from the clubs that have made their greens available to us during the year were present. Tattersall's Chairman, Frank Carberry, came along to the high tea and presentation of the prizes.

Trophy winners were: 1st, Len Burke, Phil Solomon, Horace Abbott. 2nd, E. Scott, P. Goldman, Clive Hoole. 3rd, John McKell, Arthur Miller, Fred Empson.

After our Christmas Day at Rose Bay our New Year fixtures are:

15th January: Rose Bay.

22nd January: Moore Park.

29th January: Warringah.

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH — SIR ERNEST WHITE

"E.K." THE FOUNDER

Sir Ernest Keith White, CBE, MC, MID, known to his intimates as "E.K." has built a reputation as being a founder and originator of many praiseworthy projects.

Undoubtedly these attributes stem from his parents. His father, Robert John White, had interests in grazing, timber and shipping in the Brisbane Water district. His mother also came from a pioneering family in the Gosford area. They established the first ship building industry at the entrance to Broken Bay. Later ship building yards were also built by them at Terrigal and on the Nambucca River.

Perhaps EK's most worthy memory to be handed down to posterity was his co-founding of the Australian-American Association, and this earned his knighthood conferred by the Queen in the 1969 New Year's honours list.

Recognition had previously been accorded him. As Captain White he saw service throughout the whole of his AIF career in France, and the Middle East, being awarded the Military Cross at Strzeel. He was mentioned in despatches by Sir Douglas Haig.

It was in 1936 that EK conceived the idea of forming a British-American Association, the title since being changed to the Australian-American Association. He was its first Federal president.

Under his leadership many significant changes affecting Australian-American relationships have taken place.

They include a successful campaign for Ministerial representation in Australia and America. In 1939 both countries appointed Ministers to represent their respective Governments and this was later raised to Ambassadorial level.

During the second world war the Association extended hospitality to more than one million American men in the armed forces, and as a result, Australia has an added reservoir of goodwill in the USA.

Following the war EK took the initiative in sponsoring and establishing the celebration to commemorate the allied victory in the Coral Sea — a victory which marked the turning point of the war in the Pacific and the salvation of Australia.

Modest in its beginning the celebration is now a unique event when our nation annually has as its State guest of honour a distinguished American leader to express gratitude and forge the bonds which unite the two countries.

Another important landmark was the inspiring of the movement for the erection in Canberra of a monument to the armed forces of the United States. Today the American eagle, with wings spread, looks out from its exalted perch as though to offer the protection that staunch friendship merits. It has been described as "an enduring symbol of comradeship fostered in peace and proved in war."

In political life EK formed the Liberal Democratic Party and was its president. It ultimately combined with a number of other parties throughout Australia to form the Liberal Party of today.

He was also the first president of the Gosford RSL.

EK is now in his 40th year with Tattersall's Club, and will shortly enjoy senior membership. He won racing renown with Winalot.

And very proud we are to have him a member of Tattersall's Club.

trusteeship of superannuation funds

... demands knowledge "in depth" of the investment and administration of trust funds. This has been our business for almost 80 years. When you appoint us as trustee, your superannuation fund may benefit from experience accumulated over all these years ... and you are assured of the security, impartiality and integrity essential in any trusteeship. Perpetual Trustees Australia Limited is Australia's largest trustee group, currently administering in excess of $545 million of trust funds.

For a preliminary discussion you are invited to arrange an appointment with one of our senior officers.
